Managing Partner of Pellerano & Herrera recognized as one of the 350 Most Inspiring Leaders in Central America and the Dominican Republic

Summa Magazine, the leading business publication in Central America and the Caribbean, has recognized Ricardo Pellerano, Managing Partner of Pellerano & Herrera, as one of the 350 most inspiring leaders. This special publication highlights entrepreneurs and executives who contribute to fostering successful businesses and economies in the region.

The magazine emphasizes that "these men and women are responsible for the success of companies in all areas (local, regional, and multinational) that have a positive impact on their countries. They lead international organizations that support the sector or are academics and renowned experts in economics and finance who have become true influencers and allies of progress."

They also indicate that "their stories demonstrate that there is an abundance of talent here, showcasing the drive and entrepreneurial spirit that characterizes this part of the world and the ingenuity to innovate, adapt, and manage change".

Regarding the recognition, Mr. Pellerano expressed gratitude to Summa Magazine for considering him for the list, stating that "the concept of leadership has evolved over the years into a coaching and support role that drives the best results by promoting opportunities for people and providing them with the necessary tools and empowerment to grow in all aspects".

Ricardo Pellerano is a lawyer with over 40 years of experience, focusing his practice on corporate law, banking law, securities, insurance, tourism, real estate, and telecommunications. He has been part of Pellerano & Herrera since 1975 and became a Partner in 1986.

For several years, he has been recognized as an outstanding lawyer in the Dominican Republic by prestigious local and international institutions, such as Chambers and Partners, Legal 500, IFLR 1000, Who's Who Legal, Latin Lawyer, among others. In recent years, Pellerano has been heavily involved in modernizing legal practice in the Dominican Republic and is widely recognized for incorporating innovative practices and the latest technologies in the provision of legal services.
